On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Everton as we make our second attempt to play the game which started but didn't finish on New Year's Day.

Then, heavy snow caused the game to be abandoned at half time with the score 1-1 and the weather has scarcely improved since with matches few and far between.

This week I took the first team squad to Marbella on the Costa del Sol for a break from the arctic conditions in this country and it was a welcome change from organising training stints in snow and ice.

We played some golf and it was a relaxing time which can only do the players good.

A lot has been said about the efforts clubs make to play games and I must say that we pulled out all the stops before last Saturday's postponed game against Arsenal.

The groundstaff worked very hard indeed and it was a great pity that the weather won in the end.

Picture by Harry McGuire

The week before I went to Leeds where they have undersoil heating and I saw a game played in good conditions when many were postponed.

And I can say now that as soon as finances permit we shall install some sort of system at Burnden Park. I can't say until we have gone into the matter thoroughly whether it will be a heating system or a plastic "balloon" like the one that works so well at Leicester.

One of the problems at Bolton in the past was that there simply wasn't the cash to embark on a project of this kind. But I believe that it is something that we really have to look at.

Postponed games only cause problems later in the season and while people might say that there isn't a freeze-up every year, I am sure that systems already installed have more than paid for themselves.

Welcome to . . .

Today we make another attempt to complete our home fixture against Everton, possibly the most consistent team in the country this season. The New Year clash between us had to be abandoned at half-time, with the score level at 1-1, because of the weather conditions.

That game attracted Burnden Park's largest crowd (33,051) of the season which was not too surprising in view of the Toffees' tremendous success this season.

Everton have been beaten only once in 22 completed League games this season and currently have a wonderful chance of winning the League Championship for the eighth time in their history.

The Toffees were unbeaten in their first 19 League games and had rarely looked in the slightest danger of defeat. They won away games at Chelsea (1-0), Ipswich (1-0), Norwich (1-0) and Birmingham (3-1) and drew at Manchester United (1-1), Aston Villa (1-1), Bristol City (2-2), Q.P.R. (1-1), Nottingham Forest (0-0) and Arsenal (2-2).

Their run eventually came to an end at Coventry, where they were beaten 2-3 on the Saturday before Christmas.

The Toffees didn't lose a great deal of sleep over their 1-2 third round F.A. Cup defeat at Sunderland for, with no other commitments, they are now free to concentrate entirely upon their title challenge.

In the League Cup Everton survived until the fourth round. After thumping Wimbledon 8-0 and then just managing to cast aside Darlington's challenge by 1-0, Everton were drawn at home for a third time in the fourth round. But they were beaten 3-2 by the holders, Nottingham Forest.

In the UEFA Cup they overwhelmed Finn Harps by 10-0 on aggregate but in the next round, though they drew 2-2 with Dukla Prague, they were eliminated on the away goals rule.

Mr. Lee made a couple of important signings during the close-season, paying Blackpool £325,000 for striker Mick Walsh and Newcastle £50,000 for mid-field man Geoff Nulty. Soon after the start of this season, he signed England defender Colin Todd from Derby for £300,000.

Until he was injured, Walsh formed a fine partnership with Bob Latchford, spearheading Everton's attack, with Dave Thomas supplying a stream of high crosses for both from the wing.

Mr. Lee found himself with problems when Walsh dropped out and he experimented with Roger Kenyon and Mike Lyons — both essentially central defenders — as his replacement.

Nulty went into the side at the beginning of the season as Trevor Ross was injured but he later accepted that he would have to hand over to the former Arsenal man who usually partners Andy King and Martin Dobson in the middle of the field.

King has been in particularly brilliant form with his energetic and skilful displays. Though he never neglects his defensive duties, he is always pushing forward looking for a scoring chance and he has scored some quite remarkable goals already this season.

Todd took over the right-back spot from Terry Darracott and partners his fellow England international Mike Pejic at full-back. Mike Lyons and Billy Wright normally fill the central defensive positions though Todd has played there occasionally, as have Mark Higgins and Roger Kenyon.

When this fine Everton defence does falter — and that's not often, as their goals-against record indicates so clearly — then opponents still have to face a George Wood in goal who has touched his peak since joining the Toffees last season.

Everton made a bid for the League title last season, too, but fell away at around this time of the year. But they don't intend to repeat that mistake so we can be sure of a pretty tough encounter this afternoon.

New dates and ticket details

Once again our attempts to beat the weather were foiled with the midweek F.A. Youth Cup third round tie against Leeds United being postponed yet again.

At first teaam level, we have now managed to arrange new dates for all our outstanding games.

Last Saturday's game against Arsenal will now be played on Tuesday, February 20th with a 7.30 p.m. kick-off.

And because West Brom have been drawn away in the first leg of their U.E.F.A. Cup tie against Red Star, Belgrade we have been able to arrange our game at Aston Villa for Wednesday, March 7th at 7.30 p.m.

Our visit to Derby County will be on Wednesday, March 21st also with a 7.30 start. New dates have still to be arranged for the youth games against Leeds and Oldham in the L.F.A. Youth Floodlit Cup at Boundary Park.

Mark wins the big prize

Congratulations to Mark Cowley, 271 Bolton Road, Ashton-in-Makerfield, whose entry in our New Year picture quiz landed him the prize of a couple of stand seats for a first team game here at Burnden.

Mark's was the first all-correct entry opened and the answers are:

1. Alan Gowling's header at goal in the game against Manchester City was a goal.

2. The picture showed the Wanderers' first goal on their return to Division One. The game was against Bristol City and Alan Gowling was the scorer.

3. The Wanderers scored 63 goals in the League last season.

4. Jim McDonagh was surrounded by smoke during the game against Liverpool at Anfield.

Well done Mark. Keep a lookout for the postman bringing your tickets.

Peter's big 'thanks'

Midfield man Peter Reid, injured in the New Year's Day game against Everton, was due to leave hospital this week after a knee ligament operation.

Peter sends his thanks to all the people who visited him and sent him gifts to cheer him up at this depressing stage of his career.

And all Bolton fans join together in wishing Peter a speedy return to full fitness and look forward to seeing him back in first team action.

GEORGE WOOD (Goalkeeper). One of the safest 'keepers in the country, George is now in line for a Scottish cap. He began his career with East Stirling and joined Blackpool for a modest £7,000 in 1971. Everton had to pay £150,000 to secure his transfer in the 1977 close-season.

COLIN TODD (Defender). Colin arrived from Derby in a £300,000 deal earlier this season. Though he normally plays at right-back, he still occasionally appears in his old role as a central defender. Colin began with Sunderland, winning England youth and under-23 honours with them. Derby signed him in 1971 for £170,000 and it wasn't long before he earned the first of his 27 England caps.

MIKE LYONS (Defender/Forward). There was a time when Mike was earning England under-23 caps as a defender while playing for Everton as a centre-forward! He was the Toffees' top scorer in 1973/74. For some time now he has been settled back in defence but, when Mike Walsh was unavailable last month, he was given another run in attack.

BILLY WRIGHT (Defender). Billy has the ideal name for a centre-back, of course, and though he only graduated to Everton's senior team last season he has already given an indication that he could follow in the footsteps of his famous namesake for this season he was introduced to the England under-21 eleven.

MIKE PEJIC (Defender). Mike is the son of a Polish miner and he could have qualified to play international matches for Poland. Instead, he chose England and, while with his first club Stoke City, he won four full and several under-23 caps. He was transferred to Everton for £135,000 in 1977.

MARK HIGGINS (Defender). Mark came through from the juniors to earn his first chance in the Toffees' senior side in 1976/77. He earned a regular place in the side last season but has been out of favour for much of this term.

TERRY DARRACOTT (Defender). Terry was the unfortunate one to make way for Colin Todd though he has made occasional subsequent appearances. An Everton player all his life, Terry came into the team in 1967/68 and has on many occasions held a regular place.

NEIL ROBINSON (Defender). Neil joined Everton as an amateur and turned professional in May 1974. As yet, he has made only a handful of senior appearances but he is often nominated as the substitute.

MARTIN DOBSON (Midfield). Martin was once given a free transfer by Bolton before he had had the chance to play in their first team. Burnley signed him in 1967 and he was soon in their team. Before he left Turf Moor, to join Everton for £300,000 in 1974, he gained the first of his five full England caps.

TREVOR ROSS (Midfield). Trevor grew up with Arsenal and made 58 First Division appearances for the Gunners. Everton signed him for £150,000 last season and now he is the man who usually takes their penalties.

GEOFF NULTY (Midfield). Geoff began his career with Burnley but he moved on to Newcastle for £120,000 in 1974. Everton signed him for £50,000 last summer.

BOB LATCHFORD (Forward). Bob's goalscoring feats are now legendary. He has been Everton's top scorer in each of his four completed seasons since joining them from Birmingham for £350,000 in 1974 and last season he hit the 30-goal barrier in the First Division. This season he equalled a League Cup record by hitting five goals in one match and he is yet again the Toffees' top scorer. Introduced to the England team last season, Bob now has six caps.

MICK WALSH (Forward). Mick was Blackpool's leading scorer for three successive seasons and Everton secured his transfer last summer for a fee of £325,000. This season he was recalled to the Republic of Ireland squad and earned his fifth cap against N. Ireland.

DAVE THOMAS (Forward). Dave won eight England caps for his flying and skilful displays on the wing. These came after he had earned youth and under-23 caps in his Burnley days. He left Turf Moor in 1972 to join Q.P.R. for £160,000 and Everton signed him in 1977 for £200,000.

ROGER KENYON (Defender). Roger was for several years a fixture in the middle of Everton's defence and he has played well over 250 League games for the club. He was recently re-introduced to the side in attack as an experiment.

ANDY KING (Midfield). Andy is enjoying a fine season and his goal-scoring tally is now into double figures. He served his apprenticeship with Luton, made his League bow in 1974/75 and was one of the players they were forced to sell when their financial crisis hit them. Everton signed him for a mere £35,000 in 1976.
